

GME GROUP HOLDINGS LIMITED
駿傑集團控股有限公司

(Incorporated in the Cayman Islands with limited liability)
(the “Company”)

Terms of Reference
Audit Committee
(the “Committee”)

Membership

1. The Committee shall consist of at least three directors of the Company, all of whom shall be non-executive directors with majority of independent non-executive directors appointed by the board of directors (the “Board”) from time to time. At least one member of the Committee must be an independent non-executive director with appropriate professional qualifications or accounting or related financial management expertise.
2. The Board shall appoint one of the members as the chairman of the Committee who shall be an independent non-executive director.
3. The company secretary of the Company or a nominee shall be the secretary of the Committee (the “Secretary”).
4. A former partner of the Company’s existing auditing firm should be prohibited from acting as a member of its audit committee for a period of one year from the date of his ceasing to be a partner of the firm; or to have any financial interest in the firm (whichever is later).

Frequency and proceedings of meeting

5. The Committee should meet at least four times per year. Additional meetings shall be held as the work of the Committee demands.

6. The Chairman of the Committee may convene additional meetings at his discretion. The secretary of the Committee will convene a meeting on receipt of a request by the external auditors.
7. The quorum of the Committee meeting shall be two members of the Committee, of whom one has to be an independent non-executive director of the Company.
8. The Company's finance director or other staff members and representative of the external auditors may attend Committee meetings upon invitation by the Committee.
9. Notice of any meetings of the Committee shall be given seven days prior to any such meeting being held, unless all members of the Committee unanimously waive such notice or consent to shorter notice. Irrespective of the length of notice being given, attendance of a meeting by a member of the Committee shall be deemed waiver of the requisite length of notice by the member of the Committee. Notice of any adjourned meeting is not required if the adjournment is less than 14 days.
10. Proceedings of meetings of the Committee shall be governed by the provisions of the memorandum and articles of association of the Company in relation to meetings and proceedings of the Board so far as the same are applicable.

Authority

11. The Committee is granted the authority to investigate any activity within its terms of reference, to inspect all accounts, books and records of the Company and its subsidiaries and all employees are directed to cooperate with the Committee.
12. The Committee is authorized by the Board to obtain outside legal or other independent professional advice, at the cost of the Company, and to secure the attendance of outsiders with relevant experience and expertise if it considers this necessary.
13. The Committee shall report to the Board any suspected frauds and irregularities, failures of internal control or suspected infringements of laws, rules, regulations which come to its attention and are of sufficient importance to warrant the attention of the Board.

14. Where the Board disagrees with the Committee's view on the selection, appointment, resignation or dismissal of the external auditor, the Committee will arrange for the Corporate Governance Report in the Annual Report of the Company to include an explanation of/statement explaining the Committee's view and the reason(s) why the Board has taken a different view.
15. The Committee is to be provided with sufficient resources to discharge its duties.

Responsibility

16. The Committee is to serve as a focal point for communication between the directors, the external auditor and the internal auditor as regards their duties relating to financial and other reporting, risk management, internal controls, external and internal audits and such other matters as the Board determines from time to time. The Committee shall act as the key representative body for overseeing the Company's relations with the external auditor.
17. The Committee is to assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities by providing an independent review and supervision of financial statements and material advice in respect of financial reporting, by satisfying themselves as to the effectiveness of the risk management and internal control systems of the Company and its subsidiaries (the "Group"), and as to the adequacy of the external and internal audits. The Committee shall report to the Board on the matters in these terms of reference and the Corporate Governance Code.

Functions

18. The Committee shall:–
 - (a) be primarily responsible for making recommendations to the Board on the appointment, reappointment and removal of the external auditors, and approving the remuneration and terms of engagement of the external auditors, and any questions of their resignation or dismissal;

- (b) review with the Group's management, external auditor and internal auditor, the adequacy of the Group's policies and procedures regarding internal controls (including financial, operational and compliance controls), risk management system and any statement by the director to be included in the annual accounts prior to endorsement by the Board;
- (c) have familiarity with and to review the financial reporting and accounting policies, principles and practices applied by the Group in preparing its financial statements;
- (d) review the Company's financial controls, risk management system and internal control systems;
- (e) review and monitor the external auditors' independence and objectivity and the effectiveness of the audit process in accordance with applicable standards, and prior to audit commencement, review the scope of the external audit, including the engagement letter and discuss with the auditors the nature and scope of the audit and reporting obligations. The Committee should understand the factors considered by the external auditor in determining their audit scope. The external audit fees are to be negotiated by management, and presented to the Committee for review and approval annually;
- (f) review and monitor the integrity of the Company's financial statements including the annual, interim and quarterly financial reports prior to approval by the Board, and to review significant financial reporting judgments contained in them, with particular focus on:–
 - (i) any changes in accounting policies and practices;
 - (ii) major judgmental areas;
 - (iii) significant adjustments resulting from the audit;
 - (iv) the going concern assumptions and any qualifications;
 - (v) compliance with accounting and auditing standards; and

- (vi) compliance with the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Growth Enterprise Market of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited and legal requirements in relation to financial reporting;
- (g) regarding (f) above:–
 - (i) members of the Committee should liaise with the Board and senior management and the Committee must meet at least twice a year, with the Company’s auditors; and
 - (ii) the committee should consider any significant or unusual items that are, or may need to be, reflected in the report and accounts, and it should give due consideration to any matters that have been raised by the Company’s staff responsible for the accounting and financial reporting function, compliance officer or auditors;
- (h) evaluate the cooperation received by the external auditor, including their access to all requested records, data and information; obtain the comments of management regarding the responsiveness of the external auditor to the Group’s needs; inquire of the external auditor as to whether there have been any disagreements with management which if not satisfactorily resolved would result in the issue of a qualified report on the Group’s financial statements;
- (i) seek from the external auditor, on an annual basis, information about policies and processes for maintaining independence and monitoring compliance with relevant requirements, including provision of non-audit services and requirements regarding rotation of audit partners and staff. The Committee shall develop and implement policy on engaging an external auditor to supply non-audit services. For this purpose “external auditor” includes any entity that is under common control, ownership or management with the audit firm or any entity that a reasonable and informed third party knowing all relevant information would reasonably conclude to be part of the audit firm nationally or internationally. The Committee should report to the Board, identifying and making recommendations on any matters where action or improvement is needed;

- (j) discuss with the external auditor (at least once a year) any recommendations arising from the audit and matters relating to its audit fees or any other matters the auditors wish to raise (in the absence of management and the executive Board members), and review the draft management letter and any material queries raised by the auditor to management in respect of the accounting records, financial accounts or systems of control, including management's response to the points raised;
- (k) ensure that the Board will provide a timely response to issues raised in the external auditor's management letter;
- (l) review and monitor the scope, effectiveness and results of internal audit function, ensure co-ordination between the internal and external auditors and ensure that the internal audit function is adequately resourced and has appropriate standing within the Group;
- (m) the engagement of the external auditor to perform non-audit services is in general prohibited except for tax-related services. If a compelling reason exists to engage the external auditor due to their unique expertise in particular areas, the prior approval of the Committee is required;
- (n) discuss and review with management the scope and quality of internal control and risk management systems;
- (o) discuss the risk management and internal control systems with management to ensure that the management has performed its duty to have effective systems; such discussion should include the adequacy of resources, qualifications and experience of staff of the Company's accounting and financial reporting function, and their training programmes and budget;
- (p) appraise the Board of significant developments in the course of performing the above duties;
- (q) recommend to the Board any appropriate extensions to, or changes, in the scope of duties of the Committee;

- (r) review arrangements that the employees of the Company can use, in confidence, to raise concerns about possible improprieties in financial reporting, internal control or other matters; and ensure that proper arrangements are in place for fair and independent investigation of these matters and for appropriate follow-up action;
- (s) oversee internal control procedures and corporate governance of the Company and supervise internal control systems of the Group;
- (t) discuss with and review the report from the finance director or senior management of the Company on an annual basis regarding compliance matters of the Company with laws and regulations in relation to mandatory provident fund contribution;
- (u) review and consider major investigation findings on risk management and internal control matters (e.g. any suspected frauds or irregularities or failures of internal controls or infringements of laws, rules and regulations) as delegated by the Board or on its own initiative and management's response to these findings;
- (v) establish a confidential communication channel for the chairman of the Committee to receive concerns raised by employees of the Company about possible improprieties in financial reporting, internal control or other matters including improper and personal use of bank accounts. The chairman of the Committee shall promptly communicate these concerns to the Committee, launch investigations and other follow-up actions;
- (w) if required by the Board, establish a whistleblowing policy and system for employees and those who deal with the Company (e.g. customers and suppliers) to raise concerns, in confidence, with the Committee about possible improprieties in any matter related to the Company;
- (x) approve the policies relating to the hiring of employees or former employees of the external auditors and monitor the applications of such policies. The Committee will consider whether as a result of such hiring there has been any impairment of the auditor's judgment or independence for the audit;
- (y) monitor any continuing connected transactions;

- (z) regularly report back to the Board on decisions or recommendations made, unless there are legal or regulatory restrictions to do so;
- (aa) ensure the chairman of the Committee, or in his absence another member of the Committee or failing this his duly appointed delegate, will attend and be available to answer questions at the annual general meeting of the Company; and
- (bb) consider other topics and review other documents as requested by the Board from time to time.

Reporting Procedures

19. The Secretary shall keep full minutes of Committee meetings, and shall circulate draft and final versions of the minutes of the Committee meetings, reports of the Committee and relevant information to all Committee members and directors of the Company for their comment and records within a reasonable time after the meeting.

Remark: "Senior management" refers to the same persons referred to in the Company's annual report. It is the responsibility of the directors of the Company to determine which individual or individuals constitute senior management. Senior management may include directors of subsidiaries, heads of divisions, departments or other operating units within the group as, in the opinion of the Company's directors, is appropriate.

(Adopted by the Company pursuant to the Board's resolutions passed on 10 February 2017)
